MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Director-Comptroller

Bill:

The recent action on the [redacted]-Vietnam unused compensatory time claim raises a conscience question for me: what about those individuals who also have raised this question and have been told "no" and have accepted the negative rather than pressing to the ultimate conclusion as did [redacted] (and as did [redacted] in 1968)? While there are also many others who have not raised any question I'm not suggesting consideration of that problem at this point. As a starter I would be a lot more comfortable if we took action on the few cases I am aware of where we did say "no."

For your information, on the other hand [redacted] who was briefed on the [redacted] case by [redacted] last Friday indicated he favored "paying off" all who are so entitled and to the extent we can verify hours recorded as worked but not compensated in money or time off.
